TECHNICAL FIELD SPECIFICATION • CCTV ENGINEERING

Do domestic UK CCTV installations require planning permission or ICO registration?

BOTTOM LINE UP FRONT (BLUF) TRADE ASSESSMENT:
Could your home CCTV cameras land you in legal hot water with your neighbours or the Information Commissioner's Office? Domestic CCTV is permitted development on unlisted houses, but the moment your lens views a neighbour's window or public footpath, UK data privacy law applies.

1. Field Engineering & British Standards Analysis

In accordance with UK trade guidelines and ICO Domestic CCTV Code:

Could your home CCTV cameras land you in legal hot water with your neighbours or the Information Commissioner's Office? I'm Gary Pearce from ADI Communications, with twenty-five years of UK field craftsmanship. Domestic CCTV is permitted development on unlisted houses, but the moment your lens views a neighbour's window or public footpath, UK data privacy law applies. We configure physical camera angles and digital privacy masking inside the NVR firmware to ensure complete legal compliance. For professional domestic CCTV compliance guidance, call Gary on 07860 244 274.
